2021-2022 Russell Scott Wilson Scholarship

Manhattan Christian College is pleased to offer the 2021-2022 Russell S. Wilson Scholarship. Donald J. Wilson, Sr., Frances E. (Scott) Wilson, and the extended Wilson family established this scholarship in loving memory of Russell, the oldest child of Donald and Frances, who drowned in a farm pond at the age of 17.

Established in 2004, this scholarship bears Russell's name to honor his short life and to help others fulfill their ministry potential. The Wilson family is dedicated to fostering the preparation and education of Christian leaders and they seek to encourage individuals who want to make a difference in the world for Christ.

Russell Scott Wilson Scholarship

Qualifications/Requirements

1. Students who are currently at a MCC student level of sophomore, junior, or non-graduating senior.
2. Applicants must be enrolled in a degree program which prepares them for a church related ministry.
3. Scholarship recipients will be chosen on the basis of their spiritual growth and involvement, academic standing, and financial need.
4. Application and recommendation letters must be received by Friday, April 2, 2021, for the scholarship application to be considered complete.
5. The scholarship will be granted for the 2021-2022 academic year and is to be used for educational purposes only. The amount of the award will be credited to the recipient's MCC account, divided evenly between the fall and spring semesters.
6. This scholarship may be awarded more than once during a recipient's MCC academic career, but the student must go through the application process each year.
7. Based on information received resulting from completed applications, selected applicants may be interviewed by the Wilson Family Scholarship Committee.
