

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III)

Disclosure and Reporting information

June 30, 2021

2nd Quarter reporting

The American Rescue Plan (ARP), Public Law 117-2, has allocated emergency financial aid grants called the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) III.

These grants can be used by students toward educational costs and other emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care), or child care.

This report is posted to comply with the required reporting mandates according to the CARES, CRRSAA and ARP.

- I. Manhattan Christian College acknowledges that the institution signed and returned to the Department the Certification and Agreement and the assurance that the institution has used, or intends to use, no less than 50 percent of the funds received under Section 2003 (a)(1) of the ARP to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.
- II. The total amount of HEERF III (ARP) funds that has been received is $285,508 from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.
