

RESIDENT ASSISTANT JOB DESCRIPTION

Mission Statement: “To lead people towards maturity in Christ through spiritual growth, relationship building, and personal discipline.” Colossians 1:28

1. Be a committed disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. Model the power of God’s word and prayer in daily life as well as the love of Christ for others. Strive to be Christlike in your thoughts, words, and actions. Follow Him in obedience according to His word; be a leader in conduct, attitude, and service.

2. Believe in the mission of Manhattan Christian College and adhere to the rules of this institution.

3. Assist in the guidance of other students towards a growing relationship with Jesus Christ.

4. Be a degree-seeking MCC student. (Preferably seeking a Bachelor’s degree)

5. Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50. This will be verified.

6. Preferably be a third or fourth year student for the 2022-2023 school year.

7. Be available for:

RA training sessions...These training sessions are mandatory! These will be determine after RA's are chosen.

1. Weekly R.A. meetings
2. Weekend responsibilities
3. “Check in” and “check out” before and after each semester
4. Orientation
5. Student needs on a day to day basis
6. Check-out students during finals week with the Residence Hall Supervisor
7. Weekly meetings with your floor or suite

8. Be able to provide leadership/servant hood in:

1. Administrative responsibilities
2. Community building

3. Helping roles
 4. Role modeling
 5. Campus programming
9. You must help the current RA's & Supervisors during the last week of the 2022 spring semester with clean up, check out and preparation of the residence halls for the summer and fall. You are to help until the last student checks out on May 13, 2022.
10. All RA's MUST be back on campus Friday, August 12, 2022. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU BE HERE!

RESIDENT ASSISTANT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Work with the Residence Hall Supervisor in holding students accountable to Biblical Christian standards and the rules of MCC and the Residence Halls.
(Sometimes you may not always agree with certain rules...i.e., curfew, job checks, etc...however, as an RA, it is up to you how the rules are portrayed. If you are positive about them, then others will pick up on that. Please remember that it is just as important for YOU to respect the rules as it is for the others.)
 2. Be available to students in the Residence Hall. Spend time building relationships with them. Set times specifically when students know you will be there. We know that you cannot be in the Residence Hall at all times, however, it is very important to be there as much as possible so that they can see your leadership and they can appreciate your investment into them. They need to see that you care about them.
 3. Assist students in problems associated with:
 - a. College transition
 - b. Relational issues
 - c. Homesickness
 - d. Stress
 - e. Other personal issues
- Try to be aware of any students who may be having problems and if further help is needed refer to the Residence Hall Supervisor.
4. Attend all Residence Assistant training sessions. These sessions are mandatory!
 5. Attend weekly Resident Assistant meetings with the Residence Hall Supervisors. These are mandatory meetings as they are the times when the RA's and the Supervisor can discuss items that are relevant to Residence Hall life as well as to build community amongst the RA's. These meetings must be a priority in your life.
 6. Work with the Residence Hall Supervisors and Student Development Staff during the week of Orientation. Assist with the check-in of students moving into the Residence Halls.
 7. Work with the Residence Hall Supervisor in assisting with the check-out process of students moving out of the Residence Halls. Each RA is to remain in the Residence Halls until the last student checks out (Fall and Spring semesters) in order to help with the check-out process.

8. Attend weekly Residence Hall devotions and help keep track of attendance at devotions.
9. Assist the Residence Hall Supervisor with the planning of residence hall devotions.
10. Be actively involved with Residence Hall functions and plan a minimum of one suite function per month.
11. Plan weekly suite meetings (maximum 15 minutes in length).
12. Assist the Residence Hall Supervisor in overseeing Residence Hall hours.
13. Help in supervising the care of the Residence Hall. Assist in room and job checks during your week on-duty. Report any fines to the Residence Hall supervisor immediately following job and/or room checks. Remember, the Residence Hall is your home, so do not be afraid to fine girls/guys for not properly doing their jobs. We need to instill in each and every one of these students that all should respect and keep the Residence Halls clean.
14. Report anything that needs repaired to the Residence Hall Supervisor. (maintenance@mccks.edu cc: bgrogg@mccks.edu)
15. Limit weekends out-of-town and always report to the Residence Hall Supervisors when you will be gone.
All Resident Assistants MUST BE ON CAMPUS DURING LARGE ON-CAMPUS EVENTS except in extenuating circumstances. These events include Family Weekend, Timothy Days, and any other weekends specified by the Residence Hall Supervisors.
16. Report any problems to the Residence Hall Supervisor (behavioral or social).
17. Alternate taking one week of duty with the other Resident Assistants. When it is your week, duties include:
 1. Do job checks and room checks. Post fines and report these to the Residence Hall Supervisor.
 2. BE available as much as possible during the week (leave notes to where you are, etc.) Make an extra effort to BE in the Residence Hall a majority of the time.
 3. Duties will be for a period of seven consecutive days as defined by the Residence Hall Supervisor.

REMUNERATION:

Each Resident Assistant will be required to purchase a 10 or 15 meal housing/dining option. Each semester you will receive a credit(exact amount to be determined later in Spring) toward your housing/dining bill and $1,000 cash stipend. The stipend will be paid on the 15th and 30th (or the earliest business day closest to these dates) of each month during the semester.